CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

THE VANCOUVER BRICK AND TILE COMPANY, LIMITED.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1878."

WHEREAS the undersigned desire and have agreed to form a Company or Corporation for the purpose of prosecuting the business of brick, tile, and vitrified pipe makers, on Bowen Island, in the District of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia:

These presents, therefore, are to certify that the parties whose names are hereto subscribed have formed themselves into a Company, under the "Companies Act, 1878."

The corporate name of the said Company shall be "The Vancouver Brick and Tile Company (limited liability)."

The object of said Company is the making, composing, preparing, selling, and disposing of bricks, tiles, vitrified pipes, sewer pipes, drain pipes, lime, cement, and any other articles and things made, composed, or prepared wholly or in part, of any mineral or other substance or substances raised or obtained from any of the lands purchased, leased, or otherwise acquired by the Company, or in or over which the Company may acquire any estate, interest, or right; the purchasing or otherwise acquiring for all or any of the business of the Company, steam and sailing ships, vessels and boats, waggons, carts, carriages, and other rolling stock, or any shares or interests therein, respectively, and the chartering and hiring of, and the navigating and trading with, steam and sailing ships, vessels, and boats, waggons, carts, carriages, and other rolling stock; and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

The capital stock of said Company shall be $25,000. The time of the existence of said Company shall be fifty years from the date of its formation.

The number of shares of which the capital stock shall consist shall be two hundred and fifty, of $100 each, with power to issue any of the said shares as preference shares, and with power on increase of capital to issue preference and guaranteed shares, or preference or guaranteed shares, as part or as the whole of the increased capital, and of such amounts as may from time to time be determined.

The number of Trustees who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months shall be five, whose names are as follows: David Oppenheimer, Isaac Oppenheimer, George Black, Samuel Brighthouse, and W. H. Armstrong, who are and each of them is a shareholder and a resident of the Province of British Columbia.

The principal place of business of said Company is to be located in the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

No stockholder shall be individually liable for the debts or liabilities of the Corporation, but the liability of each stockholder shall be limited to his proportion (based upon the amount of his respective shares), to assessments legally levied and the charges thereon, if advertised as delinquent during the time that he is a stockholder, upon a share or shares of which he is the holder, as shown by the Stockholders' Register Book of the Corporation or Company. Assessments and charges thereon, when taken collectively, shall not exceed in the aggregate the value in dollars printed or shown upon each share when issued.

In testimony whereof, the parties hereto have made, signed, and acknowledged (in duplicate) these presents, on the fifteenth day of April, A. D. 1887.

MUNICIPAL BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW.

By-Law for regulating the Meetings and general conduct of business of the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the District of Surrey.

WHEREAS it is expedient to pass a By-Law for the above purpose,—

Therefore, be it enacted by the Reeve and Council of the Corporation of the District of Surrey:—

1. That all meetings of the Council shall be held at the Corporation Hall, Surrey Centre.

2. If no quorum be present within thirty minutes after the time to which the Council has adjourned, the Reeve, or, in his absence, the Clerk, shall take the chair and adjourn the meeting until such time as he shall deem advisable.

3. The Reeve, if present, shall call the Council to order, and, in the absence of the Reeve, the Clerk shall call upon the Councillors present to elect a chairman. The Reeve shall decide all points of order, and endeavour to conduct all business before the Council to a speedy and proper result, and, in the absence of the Reeve, such Councillor as the members of the Council then assembled shall choose to be chairman of that meeting shall have a casting vote in all cases of equality of votes, but not otherwise, and have and exercise all the powers of the Reeve, as though he, the Reeve, were present at such meeting; he shall state all questions properly presented to the Council, and before putting any such question to the vote, shall ask, "Is the Council ready for the question?" Should no member offer to speak, he shall put the question, after which no member shall be permitted to speak upon it.

4. The Clerk shall prepare and lay before the Reeve or Chairman, at every meeting, a correct statement of the business to be transacted, and arranged in its proper order.

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS.

5. The following shall be the order of proceedings, unless otherwise ordered by the Council:—

1. Reading minutes of previous meeting;
2. Reception of communications and disposal of the same;
3. Reports of committees, and action thereon;
4. Unfinished business;
5. New business;
6. Notices of motion;
7. Adjournment.

6. All resolutions shall be reduced to writing, read by the Clerk, and seconded before they shall be discussed, and no motion shall be withdrawn except with the consent of the mover and seconder, and a majority of the Council then present.

7. The Council shall vote on all questions by a show of hands, and every member present at a meeting shall vote, and any member refusing to state how he votes shall be considered as voting in the affirmative, except that on the demand of any member the Clerk shall call the roll and record the yeas and nays.

8. The mover of any resolution or amendment, may speak to his resolution, and will have a right to close the debate; every other member can only speak once.

9. In a discussion, if any member believes his meaning to be misapprehended or misrepresented by a subsequent speaker, he shall have the right to explain, but not to introduce new matter.

10. Any member desirous of speaking to any question before the Council, or in giving notice of his intention to introduce any special business at the next meeting, shall do so standing.

11. Any member of the Council, on rising to speak, shall do so in the following terms:—"Mr. Reeve and gentlemen;" and during the transaction of business shall speak of any other member as Councillor.

12. An amendment shall always be in order, except to lay on table or to adjourn.

13. An amendment being moved, no member of the Council who has spoken to the original motion can speak again until the amendment has been put and become the amended motion before the Council; no member shall move more than one amendment to the same motion.

14. The Council may, by vote, resolve itself into Committee of the Whole, and while in committee there shall be no restriction as to the number of times a member of the Council may speak to the same motion.

15. The business under notice upon file shall not be taken up in the absence of the member in whose name it stands, unless he has given authority in writing that it should be so taken up by some other member of the Council.

16. No member of the Council shall use any improper or personal language toward any other member of the Council, or reflect on any prior determinations of the Council. When two members rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

17. Any member of the Council may call any other member to order, when the member so called to order shall sit down until the point of order has been decided by the Chairman.

18. Four, including the Reeve, shall form a quorum for the dispatch of business.

19. The Council may, from among themselves, appoint such committees, as they may consider advisable, for the better management of the affairs of the Corporation. The Reeve shall be, ex officio, a member of all committees.

20. In all cases two shall form a quorum of any committee of three; the first named of such committee to be Chairman.

21. All reports shall be in writing.

22. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when a member is in possession of the floor, or while a vote is being taken.

Clerk.

BY-LAW.

A By-Law in relation to the time for taking the Assessment for the year 1887.

THE Reeve and Council of the Corporation of the District of Surrey enact as follows:—

1. During the present year the assessment of the Corporation shall be made between the 7th day of May and the 4th day of June, and the assessment roll shall be returned on or before the 4th day of June, 1887.

2. All persons complaining of any assessment shall notify, in writing, the Municipal Clerk, of the grounds of complaint, within one month after the said last mentioned day.

3. The said Municipal Clerk shall regulate all notices of appeal (if any), and all complaints shall be heard at such time and place as the Council may by resolution appoint, but so as that the same shall be finally heard and determined on or before the 4th day of July, 1887.

This By-Law may be cited as the "Assessment By-Law, 1887."

By-Law passed the Municipal Council this 7th day of May, 1887.

[L.S.] THOS. SHANNON, Reeve.

HENRY T. THRIFT, C.M.C.

BY-LAW.

A By-Law amending the Surrey Revenue By-Law.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the "Surrey Revenue By-Law," and to re-enact and adopt the said By-Law so amended, as the "Revenue By-Law for the Corporation of the District of Surrey for the year 1887."

Be it therefore enacted by the Reeve and Council of the Corporation of the District of Surrey, as follows:

1. Section one of said By-Law is hereby amended by striking out the figures "1886," in the third line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "1887."

2. Section two of said By-Law is hereby amended by striking out the figures "1886," in third line thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "1887."

3. There shall be raised, levied, and collected, on all lands, on which there shall not be improvements existing to the value of two dollars and fifty cents per acre, in addition to all other rates and taxes, a special rate of eight and one-half cents per acre.

4. The said By-Law, so amended, is hereby enacted as and shall for all purposes be construed and taken to be the "Revenue By-Law of the Corporation of the District of Surrey, for the year 1887."

This By-Law may be cited for all purposes as the "By-Law Amending the Revenue By-Law."

Passed the Municipal Council this      day of      , 1887.
